his opponent.
George Chaney, of Baltimore, sent allie Nack, of New York, to the mat for the count in the opening round of a scheduled eight round contest. Before the round was half over Nack took the count of eight as a result of two hard jabs in the solar plexus. Two crashing uppercuts to his chin and the solar plexus.

Two crashing uppercuts to his enin-put him away.

In the semi-final, Earl France of Los Angeles, shaded Tim Droney of Lancasfer in a clean eight round hout. Not once during the contest did Ref-eres Cutch have to put his hand on either man or step between them to prevent hitting in the break-away. Phil K. O. Kaplan, Jersey City, gave Joe Jackson, Philadelphia, a severe hammering in the second bout and wen by a wide margin.

MAY MEET IN RACE New York, June 5-The possibility New York, June 5—The possibility of a meeting between Morvich. Benjamin Block's unbeagen colt, and Snob II, J. S. Cosden's imported sensation, considered by turg followers the fleetest three-year-olds of the season, loomed today as a result of the announcement by Fred Burlew Morvich's trainer, that he was pointing the colt for the Carlton stakes at Acqueduct, June 27.

Snob's entry in the race, which is limited to three year olds and over a limited to three year olds and over a distance of a mile, was by no means certain but if the winner of the historic Withers Stakes is successful in the $50,000 Belmont Classic next Sat-urday, there is a strong probability that the rival thoroughbreds will meet later for the first time. Morvich's im-post for the Carlton would be 123 pounds, three pounds less than Snob would be asked to carry if victorious in the Beimont.

Burlew's decision, incidentally, assured eastern race followers their first glimpse this season of the Kentucky derby winner before he is sent to Latonia, Kentucky for the $50,000 "special" and the derby.
